

HISTORY GRADUATE MINOR

Graduate Areas of Concentration

American history (U.S.) Western U.S. history, European history, non-American and non-European history (Asian, African, Latin American, Islamic), history of science

Graduate work in the School of History, Philosophy, and Religion may apply to the Master of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies degree and to minors in other advanced degree programs.

Students applying for graduate work in history must meet the following requirements:

1. Minimum overall undergraduate GPA of 3.00
2. Appropriate undergraduate course work in history
3. Have Graduate Record Examination scores sent to the School of History, Philosophy, and Religion.

Minor Code: 9000