

MILITARY HISTORY MINOR

Also available via Ecampus.

Issues such as war and peace have continually been part of the human condition. This military history minor is designed to better inform students regarding the questions and controversies surrounding military and peace studies. It is not only for current and future military personnel, rather it is designed for all students interested not only in strategy, tactics and military technology but also for the relationship between war and peace regarding topics such gender, social and scientific movements and what it means to serve one's country.
