

CRIME AND JUSTICE OPTION

This option is offered within the following major(s):

- Sociology - College of Liberal Arts (<http://catalog.oregonstate.edu/college-departments/liberal-arts/school-public-policy/sociology-ba-bs-hba-hbs/>)

Also available via Ecampus.

The Crime and Justice option provides students with the ability to apply social science concepts and approaches to better understand and analyze relationships between crime, justice, and public policy from a sociological perspective. The option has particular relevance for sociology students aspiring to careers in criminal justice, law, or social services, as well as those preparing for advanced/graduate programs in criminology, criminal justice, or public policy. Academic internships are available in local criminal justice and social service agencies, offering a unique combination of scholarly analysis and practical experience for students seeking careers in fields such as law, policing, corrections, and social work.
