

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Integrity is a character-driven commitment to honesty, doing what is right, and guiding others to do what is right. Oregon State University Ecampus students and faculty have a responsibility to act with integrity in all of our educational work, and that integrity enables this community of learners to interact in the spirit of trust, honesty, and fairness across the globe.

Academic misconduct, or violations of academic integrity, can fall into seven broad areas, including but not limited to: cheating; plagiarism; falsification; assisting; tampering; multiple submissions of work; and unauthorized recording and use.

It is important that you understand what student actions are defined as academic misconduct at Oregon State University. The OSU Libraries offer a tutorial on academic misconduct (<https://guides.library.oregonstate.edu/c.php?g=286121&p=3896378>), and you can also refer to the OSU Student Code of Conduct (<https://beav.es/codeofconduct/>) and the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standard's website (<https://studentlife.oregonstate.edu/studentconduct/student-info/>) for more information. More importantly, if you are unsure if something will violate our academic integrity policy, ask your professors, GTAs, academic advisors, or academic integrity officers.
